

NEWS ABOUT PROSPECTS MTF

On the 2nd August, the directors of Klikk Finance plc paid a courtesy visit to the Exchange following their successful journey to achieve admission to the new Prospects MTF market through the issue of €2,000,000 Klikk Finance plc 5.25% Unsecured Bonds 2027 that was fully subscribed. They, together with their corporate advisors, Grant Thornton, expressed satisfaction with the new market by saying that the process was a very efficient and timely one.

RSM Malta and Amergeris Wealth Management Services Ltd became the 14th and 15th Prospects MTF corporate advisors to be approved by the Malta Stock Exchange.

The level of take up of the corporate advisor role is testimony to the interest that this new market has generated, and the potential that exists both in Malta and overseas.

RSM, Amergeris Wealth Management Services Ltd, KSi Malta and ARQ Group brought the total number of corporate advisors authorised to represent and advise Prospects MTF applicants to 17 – welcome aboard!

On the 28th December, AgriHoldings plc became the 6th admission on Prospects MTF through the admission of €2 Million 4.875% Senior Secured Bonds 2024. DF Consultancy Ltd were the corporate advisors.

PROSPECTS MTF THESIS

The Malta Stock Exchange was presented with a thesis on Prospects MTF by Ms Valentina Graberi, an Italian student majoring in Business Studies at the University of Udine.

MAIN STREET ANCHOVY SOFA SESSION

On 19th October Ms Stephanie Galea, Head of Business Development and Mr Cliff Pace, Head of Marketing and Corporate Communications together with Mr Benji Borg, Anchovy Studios plc director participated in a live Facebook Sofa Session about the subject 'Alternative Financing Channels'. The session was moderated by Dr Chris Mallia of Main Street Capital. The session focused mainly on the importance of adequate financing options available for SMEs, particularly the benefits derived from raising capital through a Prospects MTF admission.

DEMETRA ORGANISES ANOTHER PROSPECTS MTF EDUCATIONAL CLINIC

A second educational clinic about Prospects MTF was organised by Demetra Corporate Advisors on 15th September 2017. The event this year focused on the requirements for admission to Prospects MTF and the benefits derived from a Prospects MTF admission. The event was hosted by the Malta Stock Exchange at its premises in Valletta and was inaugurated by Malta Stock Exchange CEO Mr Simon

Zammit. Amongst the speakers were Mr Kenneth Farrugia – Chairman of Finance Malta who outlined the range of opportunities that exist in Malta and how Malta has developed into a financial services centre over the past 10 years. Over 20 persons, mostly from northern Italy, attended the workshop which also included the participation of Maltese stakeholders.

